N.Rama Rao,Esq., B.A.,B.L.,
Secretary to Government of Mysore,
Development Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.D.1152/C.S.20-28-1 dated 30-7-28 enquiring whether the cost of the Home Savings Boxes are being recovered in easy instalments from the members of the Depressed Class Co-operative Societies to whom they are given, I have the honou to state that 900 boxes are reported to be in use in all the Depresse Class Co-operative Societies now and that a sum of Rs.36-7-0 has so far been recovered towards the cost of these boxes. The amount of deposits collected in these boxes was about Rs.850/- at the end of June 1928. As the majority of the members are very poor, they are encouraged to pay up regularly their share amounts at first and also to put by their extra savings. In some of the societies, the collections ~~of~~ for these boxes are credited and adjusted towards the share account and also loans due from the members. Habits of thrift are thus being gradullay inculcated among the depressed class members.

2 Such of the members as are able to pay towards the cost of these boxes are insisted upon to pay at convenient instalments but it is reported that such people are not many in the Depressed Class Co-operative Societies.

3 I have therefore instructed the societies in which such boxes are in large circulation to collect at least rupee one per year from each member towards the cost of these boxes and keep it as a separate fund, option being given to the members to get back the price of the boxes when they do not require them permanently.

The scheme of Home Savings boxes is yet in the experimental stage and unless we work it for some years and its advantages are ap cia te appreciated by the members, it will not be possible to recover th cost of the boxes at once. A proper account of these boxes is, any how being maintained by the Department and each society has bee instructed to maintain a register showing the distribution of the boxes among its members as per Circular No.37/C.S. dated 27-3-28, a copy of which is herewith enclosed for ready reference.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Registrar in charge.
